HORNET

MANSFIELD
HIGH SCHOOL

MANSFIELD,
MASSACHUSETTS

From the crisp, autumn-burnt afternoons on the football field, . . . to the snowy mornings of cold winter schooldays . . . to the balmy evenings of our Prom and Graduation . . . our school has given us many memories which even time will not erase from our hearts.

Although we can never relive these nostalgic moments, we have tried to recapture glimpses of them, in this, THE 1964 HORNET.

In Memoriam

"To Mansfield High School with Best Wishes"
JOHN F. KENNEDY
35th PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES
Presented in honor of President Kennedy's visit to Mansfield High School on October 6, 1958

November brought a freezing shock that chilled
The last bright rays of autumn's burnished day.
Liberty's voice was silenced, a song stilled,
A world plunged into winter, cold and gray:
A nation learned its chief was gone away.

Let us not fly to grief, life's fugitives,
But let ring with his courage all we say,
And let us drink the strength his spirit gives,
And let us know: As long as Freedom breathes, he lives.

—Suzanne Lemieux

MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1964

Dear Graduates:

I congratulate you upon your graduation from Mansfield High School.

"The Clock of Life is wound but once
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.

Now is the only time we own
Love, live, toil with a will,
Do not wait until tomorrow,
For the Clock may then be still."

Sincerely yours,

Albert J. Murphy

Albert J. Murphy

To the Class of 1964:

"Hear, my son, accept my words,
that the years of your life may be many.
I have taught you the way of wisdom;
I have led you in the paths of uprightness.
When you walk, your step will not be hampered;
and if you run, you will not stumble.
Keep hold of instruction, do not let go;
guard her, for she is your life.

Proverbs 4-10-13

To all of you, good luck and God bless you.

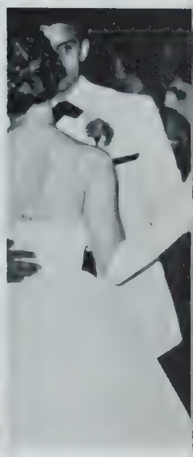
THE KING AND QUEEN



It was May 24, 1963, and the gym was a fantasy of turquoise and white. Palm trees, brilliant flowers, and even a native hut decorated Bali Ha'i, our tropical paradise. Our thanks to Decoration Co-chairmen Suzanne Lemieux and Allan Partington for the part they played in creating the Class of 64's own "special island."

Good Government Day

During December 1963, six of our seniors campaigned to become Mansfield's representative to the Massachusetts Student Legislature. Richard Collins, Gerald Langille, Robert Payden, Donna Rowell, Edmund Ward, and Bruce Wood each gave their views on the articles to be presented before the legislature.

The next day elections were held. Richard Collins was chosen as the school representative and Edmund Ward as his alternate. Richard went to the state house on April 9, 1964.

Due to the able leadership of the class officers, the help of the advisors and the cooperation of all the Juniors, the year 1963-1964 was a very successful one for the junior class.

During the course of the year they held two dances, "Pre-Victory" and "Sadie Hawkins," sponsored a candy sale, and after many months of hard work, presented the annual "Senior Reception."

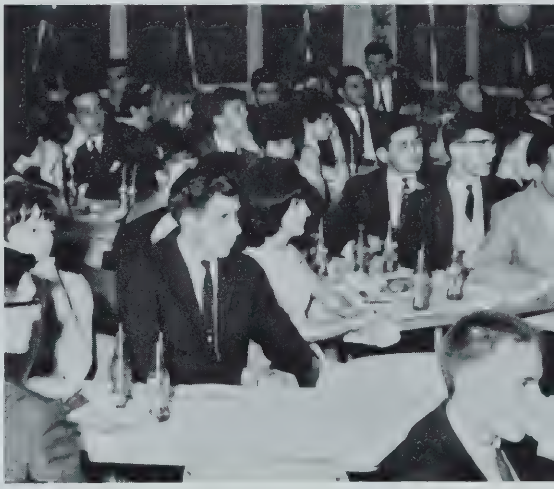
With the help of "The Beatles," the waitresses, and the swinging spirit of the night-clubbers, "Sayonara" was a foreseen success.

The highlight of the evening came when hundreds of balloons were broken, lanterns came down, and the Beatles ran. The teachers held up their hands as if to say, "Oh, well, they're only kids."



Looks like rain!

"And in this corner . . ."

Is it really that bad?

Dreamy eyed.

"What do you mean—go home?"

"What—are you crazy?"

"Hit him again!"

MANSFIELD 0—HOLBROOK 22

The Hornets started off their '63 schedule with vigor, but the Holbrook squad displayed fine offensive ability. Although fumbles resulted in the downfall of the Mansfield squad, one could not overlook Fred Vallett's fine passing and the strong defense.

MANSFIELD 6—FRANKLIN 0

Mansfield, in their first Hockomock contest, scored late in the first quarter in a defensive game and hung on to defeat a fine Franklin team. Sophomore Kevin Fallon raced to the end zone for the winning points. Outstanding in the Hornet defense were Seniors "Snitch" Gordon, Karl Stukis, and Ed Gonsalves.

MANSFIELD 0—OLIVER AMES 0

A powerful Oliver Ames squad, studded with veterans from last season's varsity, wasn't strong enough to capitalize our Hornet Eleven. OA had chances to score from Mansfield's three and ten yard lines, but the Hornets' defense fought determinedly and held them. Although it ended in a scoreless tie, the Hornets won a moral victory through outstanding teamwork and overwhelming school spirit.

MANSFIELD 20—CANTON 0

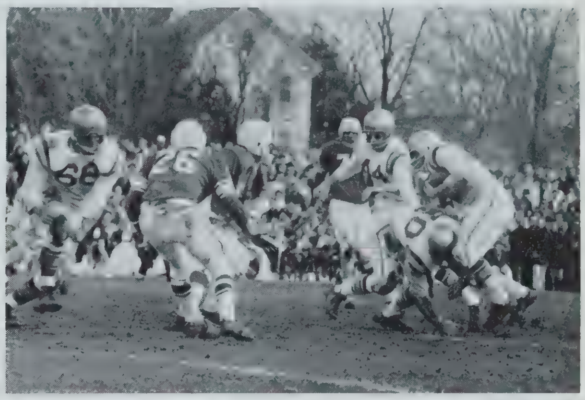
Mansfield's "fired up" eleven enjoyed its best offensive effort by routing Canton for its third straight shutout. The bulky Hornets' defensive forward wall of Dick Gordon, Ken Fallon, Bob Bogdanchik, and Karl Stukis completely smothered Canton's offensive attack. Senior Ed Gonsalves and underclassmen Tom Cruser and Kevin Fallon scored the touchdowns during the contest.

MANSFIELD 8—KING PHILIP 19

Mansfield's defensive unit gave way to King Philip's Warriors. The Hornets' single score came in a twenty-five yard pass from Vallett to back Ed Gonsalves. A lack of spirit and drive led to this decisive defeat.

MANSFIELD 14—CASE 18

Case High of Swansea generated enough power to outclass the Hornet gridsters on Monday at Memorial Park. Captain Piasecki's squad was first to score, but several fumbles and unlucky breaks helped to make the defeat possible.



MANSFIELD 46—BISHOP FEEHAN 7

Mansfield rebounded with a powerful offense against a mediocre Feehan team. Vigorous ground and aerial attacks crushed the Shamrocks' efforts. Seniors Ed Tartufo, Al Partington, Ted Sargent, and Bob Barre, with their strong spirit, helped to make the victory possible.

MANSFIELD 12—NORTH ATTLEBORO 8

The Hornets' defense did a great job and rallied to hold North's offense. After a scoreless first half, Senior Ed Gonsalves took a twenty-nine yard pass from quarterback Fred Vallett for the first score and went seventy-four yards on a flat pass to set up a second. Surely this contest was won by overwhelming team spirit and hustle.

MANSFIELD 6—FOXBORO 7

The Hornet eleven powered a quick touchdown after the initial kickoff of the Thanksgiving joust, but its failure to convert gave the rival Warriors a scanty decision. Although it was a close contest, Mansfield's Lou Gambale, Mike Jackson and fellow teammates played a fine game.

"More than we realized high school days have flown . . . "

—a feeling voiced in our class song. Although the day of our Graduation had been long awaited, it was still hard to believe that we had actually come to the end of our days at Mansfield High. High school days had truly flown and left us on the brink of the future.

Uncertainty as to what tomorrow would bring, sadness at bidding farewell to dear friends and good times, and joy at the achievement of twelve years of education, were some emotions which were mirrored in the eyes of the new graduates of the Class of '64.

"So little done, so much to do," began to have real meaning, as we left Mansfield High School for the last time, on June tenth, the day of our . . .

"Now while time goes on,
Long after these days are gone
These memories will mean even more."

Class History

By Judith Dutton, Jerilyn Rodrick, and John Rose

As we, the Class of 1964, are preparing to leave Mansfield High School for the last time, it is well to look back over the years to see what we have accomplished. Following the class elections in the eighth grade, we anxiously awaited the following September when we, as "Pea-Green" Freshmen, would be under the leadership of President William Piasecki, Vice President Michael Welch, Secretary Nancy Houghton, and Treasurer Laura Scarpellini. Upon entering the Senior Wing Doors, we were assigned Mrs. Eleanor Stetson and Mr. Manuel Lassaletta as class advisors. They worked zealously with us in preparing the only dance of our Freshman year, "Swing Into Spring," given on May 19, as a farewell to the Seniors.

This dance brought back the memories of the preceding October, when the Seniors initiated us for five hectic days. We were casually persuaded (Compelled) to buy lunches, drink sour milk from baby bottles, carry books, and recite endlessly on calloused knees to the tyrannical Seniors:

"You are the mighty Seniors,
We really think you're great
We hope you don't emulsify us
Before you graduate."

The climax, of course, was the "Freshman Initiation Dance," at which we arrived carrying our stuffed animals. At the dance, the Seniors were particularly interested in initiating the newest member of our class, Udo Bowen, and presented him with a giant sugar daddy for his outstanding good humor and cooperation.

Now that we had gained one year of experience as Freshmen, we breezed into our Sophomore year with full confidence under the guidance of our newly appointed class advisors Mr. Roland Brousseau and Mr. Albert Goetz. They worked in conjunction with Mrs. Stetson.

Our class elections saw the following changes— Allan Partington as Vice President and Judith Dutton as Secretary.

Our social calendar for the year consisted of two dances, one in the Fall, "Superstitious Swing," held on Friday, October 13, and on May 11, "Hawaiian Luau," at which everyone received a colorful lei. The measuring of our class rings ended our year as "Gay Young Sophomores."

In the Fall of 1962, we entered our Junior year proudly receiving the rings we had ordered the preceding Spring. Our class was relatively the same except for two changes, Nancy Houghton as Treasurer, and Miss Mary Connolly, who replaced Mr. Brousseau as an advisor.

Our first dance, which was to the advantage of the fairer sex, was named the "Sadie Hawkins Dance," Many of us can remember the Dogpatch setting, where the young ladies, taking the upper hand over their masculine victims, trapped their men into making this event a social and financial success.

Both the "Harvest Moon Dance" of November 2 and the "Snowball Dance" of December 7, while providing entertainment, added funds to our treasury.

In the weeks preceding our Christmas vacation, the entire class participated in a grand sale of Kathryn Beich Candies. Because of the efforts of such people as Linda Watson, who was awarded free class dues for her sale of 83 cans of candy, worth 103.00, the sale became our greatest financial gain.

In the course of the year, we were happy to add Donald Pratt, Marybeth Keith, and Patricia Cushing to our class roster.

In the Spring, we commenced our work on the most memorable event of the year—"The Junior Reception To the Seniors." Under the able leadership of Co-Chairmen John Tucker and Karen Wills, the work of refreshments, entertainment and tickets was contributed by various members of the class. The greatest task, concerning decorations, was fulfilled by Allan Partington and Suzanne Lemieux, with the aid of our Art teacher, Mr. Cunningham. The true spirit of our class was demonstrated during the week preceding the Prom when we worked countless hours in creating our "Polynesian Paradise," "Bali Ha'i."

During the final weeks of school, the following representatives to Boys' State were chosen: Gerald Langille, Robert Payden, and Gardner Haynes with alternates William Piasecki and Allan Partington. Representing Girls' State was Judith Dutton with Suzanne Lemieux as alternate. With the election of Purdy as our official photographer, we "Jolly Juniors" could feel "Senioritis" setting in.

September came, and as we entered the doors of M.H.S., we hoped our final year as "Grand Old Seniors" would be one which we would always remember.

Encouraged by our class officers, President William Piasecki, Vice President Allan Partington, Secretary

Judith Dutton, Treasurer Nancy Houghton, and our newly appointed class advisors, Miss Maureen Bosteel and Mr. Bruce Dexter, we immediately accepted our responsibilities. Work was started on the yearbook under the leadership of Mr. Michael Brandenburg and the following editors: Co-Editors-In-Chief, Gardner Haynes and Judith Dutton; Business Manager, Gerald Langille; Art and Photography, Suzanne Lemieux; Typing, Jerilyn Rodrick; Advertising, John Rose; Biographies, Carolyn Knowles and Barbara Ramondetta; Sports, Nancy Houghton and Allan Partington; Activities, Jane Carine, David Darrah and Faye Cowan; and Underclassmen, Karen Guillette. Claire Baldini. and Karen Wills.

Since the little "Frosh" weren't accustomed to the etiquette of the Senior Wing life, we eagerly taught them such courtesies as opening doors, carrying their superiors' books, catering lunches—and all to be done with a smile. The Freshmen who were never to be found in the halls were officially initiated at the "Senior Reception to the Freshmen." Richard Collins awarded prizes and crowned Charles Scott and Wendy Tessier as King and Queen for their quick learning.

On the afternoon of October 18, we worked diligently to decorate the gym with the most fashionable rags and then ran home to patch our oldest blue jeans to wear to the "Hobo Dance." That evening, as we were dancing or gathered around in groups singing, a stillness fell over the gym as John Dunne arrived with his pretty date, Allan Partington. Although John's date distracted many of the boys, we were sure that for one night the girls didn't mind.

Our third social event, postponed from November 22 to December 7 because of the tragic death of President John F. Kennedy, was our class play, "A Date with Judy." Lead roles were played by the two newest members of our class, Donna Rowell and Edmund Ward, along with David DeSantis, Suzanne Corey, Udo Bowen, Carlotta Andrade, Charles dela-Feuilliez, Sandra Washburn, Marybeth Keith, Judith Allen, Lynda Spence, Lynda Martin, Richard Collins, and Donna Monteiro. The talented cast, directed by Mr. Dexter, enjoyed producing this comedy as much as the audience enjoyed watching it.

On April 4, M.H.S. was invaded by the Beatles, who kindly consented to perform at "Club 64," which we decorated in a Japanese setting, and entitled "Sayonara." The delicious food, the snappy waitresses, and the music created an authentic night club atmosphere.

On April 14, the Seniors enthusiastically watched television to catch a glimpse of our Student Representative, Richard Collins, who was at the State House participating in Student Government Day. We were disappointed to discover that Dick had become camera shy and had volunteered his services behind the scenes.

Scholastically, our class had five members in the National Honor Society: Gerald Langille, President; Carolyn Knowles, Vice President; Judith Dutton, Secretary-Treasurer; Gardner Haynes, and Jerilyn Rodrick.

In reviewing our sports of the year, we find that, backed by the spirit and determination of its Captain Bill Piasecki, our Football team experienced a very fine season. The "Victory Dance," held at Foxboro High School, brought an end to such terms as blocking, tackling, and punting. Now more commonly used were such words as shooting, dribbling, and rebounding. The basketball games were popularly attended by the students who enjoyed watching the spirited team, which was fortunate in having as Co-captains Dave Fusco and Bill Piasecki. The Senior Cheerleaders ended their career with the 6th Annual Southeastern Massachusetts Cheering Tournament planned by their Captain, Donna Grover, and sponsored by the Senior class.

The Tennis squad, led by Captain Udo Bowen, the Golf team, and the Track team displayed a fine showing during the spring season.

With the outstanding abilities of Co-captains Bill Piasecki, Dave Fusco, Dave Gifford, and Ed Gonsalves, our Baseball team won the Hockomock League Title and entered the State Tournament.

As Graduation week approached, our class made last-minute decisions. We chose as our class colors, peach and white, and as our flower, the white carnation. Suzanne Lemieux was completing the last phrases of our class song, while Gardner Haynes and Gerald Langille were writing their valedictory and salutatory speeches.

In the midst of finals, the Juniors were busy preparing for the "Junior Reception to the Seniors." The gym was decorated with Egyptian sphinx, colorful streamers, picturesque murals, and a temple in which Allan Partington and Judith Dutton were crowned King and Queen.

Our Graduation calendar reads as follows—June 7, Baccalaureate Sunday; June 8, Class Day and the Class Banquet; and last, but not least, June 10, Graduation.

Now, after twelve years of unity have passed, we realize that we, as a class, have traveled together as far as we will. We will now be going our separate ways and we realize, as our motto states, that there is "So little done, so much to do."

The foregoing instrument, consisting of 99 pages, was subscribed on the date which it bears, June 8, 1964, by the testators, THE CLASS OF '64, and at the time of subscribing was declared by them to be their Last Will and Testament; and we, in their presence and in the presence of each other, have signed such instruments as witnesses.

Class Prophecy

By Shirley Parkhurst, Nancy Houghton, and Karen Wills

Setting: WMHS Broadcasting Company Studio

Time: 1970

Characters: Class of 1964 as T.V. Personalities

Ladies and gentlemen and distinguished guests, welcome to the WMHS Broadcasting Network's Television Preview for 1970. I, NANCY HOUGHTON, and my associates KAREN WILLS and SHIRLEY PARKHURST will now begin our presentation. This year our company is the first to publicize and rate its program listings, and this is our premier showing. We would appreciate your silence since we must rate these programs for humor, character performance, satire, and corn.

Our first selection is a rise and shine program of morning exercises, starring none other than FRANK "LaLANE" GEDDES and his modern muscle-building methods.

For our younger viewers we have chosen the Three Stooges. Look, Karen, isn't that ED "MOE" GONSALVES, "LARRY" D. GIFFORD, and "CURLY" NEAL HERRICK? I always thought they had a lot in common. Gee, so far four of the kids we graduated with have appeared in the programs. I wonder if anyone else will! Let's get on to the next listing and find out.

Out of the clear blue of the western skies comes "SKY" LEAVITT flying over the forest wilderness. Jim spots the loyal woodsman, "SMOKEY" KARL STUKIS and his lumberjack pal, "POWERFUL PIERRE" WAYNE GORDON who are busy seeding the woody slopes.

Next it's Mr. Wizard featuring the Doctors GERALD LANGILLE and JON WHITTAKER, Professor GARDNER HAYNES, and Physicist TED SARGENT, experimenting on how to grow bananas with seeds.

For all our weight watchers in the audience, we have contracted with Metrecal, Inc., as our first sponsor. Well, Shirley, look who Miss Metrecal is. Why, it's JERI RODRICK! It looks like she is still experimenting with those diets.

Now back to our programs. Let's see what is next. It's the Foreign Legion starring Colonel RICHARD JUST, Major DONALD CLARK, and General DANA MORSE. They can make all the noise they want to out in that desert.

Well, here is a refreshing change—The "LORETTA" D. GROVER Theatre. As Donna twirls through the door, let's view a serious-minded episode, East Side/West Side. Here LINDA MARTIN and BARBARA RAMONDETTA are pondering over a problem child "whose father is a commie and whose mother pushes tea."

I don't believe it, Karen and Shirley, every program has had someone from our class in it! This is really exciting! Let's see who is on the following show.

Why, look! It's the JOHN ROSE "BENNY" Show, but John never hits a sour note, so he'll have to change his tune. Anyway, it's time for our next sponsor.

"If you care enough to send the very best, you'll send Lemieux-Mark Cards," says SUE LEMIEUX, the designer, painter, author, and printer of the finest card selections in the world. "Look for my display at your friendly neighborhood card store."

Now, we will turn to Queen for a Day, and it looks like they are ready to choose the winner. Hear, Ye! Hear, Ye! The winner and queen for the day is FAYE COWAN. Her lovely prize is an all-expense paid royal tour of Canada.

Next, it's Hazel starring CARLENE APGAR "BOOTH." Miss Dorothy is having her social club entertained by two hair stylists. Look, Shirl, aren't those hairdressers DONNA JAEGER and MARY-BETH KEITH? They seem to be doing a good job, but Carlene had them laughing so hard that all the guests are bald now.

These classmates of ours are certainly great, aren't they? Whoever would have thought they could be such fine performers. I wonder who is next? I hear a lot of music. It's American Bandstand with Disc Jockey DENNIS "CHIPPA" CIPRIANI "CLARK." Guest stars are a dancing duet, DONNA "TWINKLE-TOES" PICCIANDRA and SANDY "WORK IT ON OUT" WASHBURN. Look, Karen and Shirl, Chippa Clark is stepping down from the platform and is going to do an advertisement. He seems to be taking his trumpet with him. And here comes LYNDA SPENCE carrying something in her hands. Why, it's a Kleenex box! They are going to do the double strength Kleenex ad.

Next on the list is How to Marry a Millionaire, and it looks like . . . it is! "DIAMOND" K. HANSEL and "RUBY" K. HAWES cornering two handsome bachelors. I wish we could see whether their Rambler overtakes them or not, but it is time for our next listing.

Being shown now is the Alfred Hitchcock Show. You might have known who the stars would be! Guess who it is, Shirley? It's BRUCE "CRUSADER" KINGSBURY and PAUL "GHOUL" FRECHETTE. You're right, it is they, but I could hardly tell because that room they are in is so dark and gloomy. I wonder what they are doing in there with all those long pine boxes!

Our next sponsor is the Comfy Mattress Corporation. The whole commercial just seems to be showing how comfortable their mattresses are by having a demonstrator fast asleep on one of them. Oh, no! Look! He just rolled over and it's none other than "SNITCH" GORDON! I guess Dick is just trying to prove that sleeping on a Comfy Mattress is like sleeping in Spanish class.

Mr. Novak is on now. Some of our classmates must be on here too, but they are too old to be the pupils, so I wonder what they'll be doing. There is the Principal, RUSSELL "VANE" SEMPLE and his assistant, JUDY "PAGANO" DUTTON, touring the corridors. In room 233 DIANE DARRAH is reading to her class from "How to Enjoy History in 1264 Easy Lessons," and as they approach the cafeteria they observe MARY "CROCKER" LANDERS busy spooning out American Slop Suey. Walking by the library they see CAROL "LUNN" GULAN sorting out the volumes, while teacher and coach for Jefferson High, ED D'WINKY TARTUFO, is posting his team's football schedule.

Now it is Sea Hunt and there is BOB BARRE "BRIDGES" and his assistant SANDRA "MERMAID" FRANEY busy spearing barracudas, while Captain DON DeCHELLIS putts along in his motorboat singing, "To the Sea, To the Sea."

Another of our sponsors is the Beechnut Corporation. Look! Isn't that the twins, JANE and BARBARA CARINE, singing "Double your pleasure, double your fun—with double good, double good, doublemint gum."

Coming on now is Bonanza, and approaching the Ponderosa is WALTER "HOSS" BOGDANCHIK, "LITTLE" DAVE "ZUB" HOUGHTON, and BOB "ADAM" MARSHALL. Hold it a minute—Zub is riding backwards!

On the serious side, we have Combat starring BOB BEACH, DENNIS GORDON, and GARY BAXTER, who are busy fighting the hairy gorillas in South Vietnam.

WMHS News now presents DICK "HUNKLEY" COLLINS and BOB "BRINKLEY" PAYDEN announcing the Emmy awards and other headlines. "This is Dick Hunkley from New York. Today is a big day in the T.V. world and the following awards have just been given. The Best Actress is SUE COREY for her fine performances all year. The award for Best Supporting Actress has gone to DONNA ROWELL for her role in "A Date With Jerry." CHARLES DE LA FEUILLIEZ won the Best Actor award for "On My Way to the Guidance Office." Now to Bob Brinkley in Washington—Arriving in Washington today were the famous model JANET GORDON, her fashion designer RITA CHILLI, and her seamstress SANDRA CARL. This trio has won much recognition for their fine appearances. I guess that's about it for the news. Good-night, Dick. Good-night, Bob.

Now back to our entertainment. It's the Dobie Gillis Show. Look, Nanc and Shirl! Isn't that BILL PIASECKI with his arms around BETTE DUNNE, LAURA SCARPELLINI and JUDY ANDERSON? They sure are giving him a rough time! But here comes LOUIE "MAYNARD" WYNN to the rescue! Gee, remember in high school what a hard time Bill had fighting off the girls—or was it the other way around! Anyway, he doesn't seem to be having any problems now with "Way out" Wynn on his side.

Time for another commercial. The Tide Corporation now presents a friendly interview at Dave the Cleaners. Being interviewed by the owner, DAVE DARRAH, are three lovely housewives, DONNA MONTEIRO, LINDA WATSON, and PAULA DE LA FEUILLIEZ. "Do you women prefer Tide in your washing machines?" "No! We like it better at the seashore!" "Oh, o.k."

It's championship bowling on Make That Spare. Competing for the prize money are DAVID WITHERSPOON and BRUCE WOOD. These men have won games all over the country and have certainly been a credit to their league of "Withered Wood."

Here we present an impressive program, Breaking Point. Psychologist CAROLYN KNOWLES is standing watchfully over a depressed patient who thinks he has beans in his ears. Here a nurse approaches courageously. Wait a minute! Isn't that nurse CLAIRE BALDINI carrying something in her hands? Why, it's a bag of beans.

Next we have The Defenders. As the Honorable EDMUND WARD cautions Attorney DAVE DeSANTIS that he is speaking out of line, over-arguing his point, and being bitter about the whole case, the defendant CAROLE CHIPPOLA smiles contentedly. As JUDY ALLEN busily records Dave's derogatory rebuttal, we must get on to our next sponsor, The Frito Corporation.

Munch, Munch, Munch a bunch of Fritos—Cornchips. Why, look who's doing the commercial! It's KAREN GUILLETTE. Remember how everyone in school always thought they smelled popcorn, until we discovered it was "Kink" and her "Fritos."

Now it's International Showtime. Galloping through the entrance to the arena are NANCY BIELAN, DIANE "FURY" WHITTIER, and ROSEMARY JAMESON. Nancy and Diane look like they are going to do trick riding in their ballerina outfits, but Rosie is on a bucking bronco.

On the screen now is the Beverly Hillbillies. Making vittles and possum stew are BOB "JETHRO" CLAFLIN and CAROL "ELLIE-MAE" FIELDING. As they sit down to their yummy dinner, let us get on to our next listing.

"Look who is featured on Wide World of Sports, Karen." The basketball star is DAVID FUSCO—Whoops! He just lost his sneaker! Rounding the track is DENNIS STRATTON, but he seems to be carrying something in his hands. It's a stage light! Now they're showing the Field Hockey Tournament and there's NANCY THIBEAULT refereeing as the Russian team calls a veto!!

Now we present Ripcord. Floating through the air with the greatest of ease are parachutists PHIL SHEEHAN, DON PRATT, and BILL ALLARD. It seems they are going to rescue double trouble, BETTE and BARBARA COLBY, who are stranded in a small town called Mansfield.

Our next sponsor is Betty Crocker. Advertising her new double thick, rich, chocolate brownies is NANCY DEVINE. "Being an authority on brownies," says Nancy, "I can assure you that Betty Crocker's are the finest brownies you can buy."

I hear music again and see bubbles, Nanc. Look, it's the Lawrence Welk Show. His guest stars are CATHIE BISHOP with her talking trombone and CARLOTTA ANDRADE, singing some of the great songs of the '60's, like "Alley-oop," "The Bird is the Word," and "The Mashed Potato."

Now another commercial by the Eastern Rocket Lines. As the pilot ALLAN PARTINGTON steers his rocket straight toward Florida, we see stewardess CAROL SCARPELLINI, sitting cool, calm and collected. It looks like the ship is landing now, and Carol and Allan are stepping out to say something. "This is the first company to send you off with a blast to sunny Miami and have a handsome reception committee waiting for you." Look, isn't that JEEP "RUBBER-STRIP" STREETER, JOHN "SAND-DUNE" DUNNE and GLEN "CAB" GALLUS heading the reception line and throwing some of their sunny kisses to the passengers?

Back on our programs, we now have Petticoat Junction. On the Cannonball Express are four lovely debs: BETTE INGLESE, CHERYL NARCISO, CAROL SWEENEY and JOAN AVERY, heading toward Bird Lane to break up the traffic jam.

"Gee, Nanc and Karen, we only have a few more programs to show our guests. I hope the rest of our classmates are performers."

Now we present Route 66. There's NORM GRIFFIN selling his used oil to LEO "OIL-CAN" MacDONALD, as PAUL MACOMBER packs their luggage for their trip to Pikes Peak.

Espionage is next. As Foreign Secretary MARY HAYNER investigates the conditions on Iceland, co-ed spies UDO BOWEN and DARLENE GORDON are trying to check the files in the Octagon, or is it the Pentagon? Oh, well, anyway, they seem to be lost.

Finally we have come to our last sponsor, Lady Clairol. "Only your hairdressers know for sure," say DIANE TITUS and PAM PHILLIPS. "At least that's what our customers think!"

For our last selection we now feature Doctor Tucker. Here comes Head Nurse PEGGY O'BRIEN directing the wheeling of a "Lovable" looking patient, by nurses SHARON NORTON and PAT CUSHING. As they enter the operating room, we see Doctor JOHN TUCKER and, standing close by his side, his assistant, JANET PORTER, patiently waiting for their victim. They are now uncovering the patient's face and perhaps we will get a glimpse of him. Oh, No!!! It's JOE PEDINI. What's Doctor Tucker screaming? I'm not sure, Karen, but I think it is, "I'm going to kill that boy, I'm going to kill that boy!!"

Ladies and gentlemen, this concludes our Preview Presentation. We hope you have enjoyed viewing portions of these programs which you will be able to watch on your own T.V. in the Fall. Until then, keep enjoying those re-runs!!!
